

Win Prizes and Recognition for YOUR writing!

Dear 6th graders, We are incredibly excited to be able to share this new writing opportunity with you: The first ever High School National English Honor Society (NEHS)-sponsored Photo-Prompt Writing Contest! Based upon the image below, we challenge you to compose a poem, essay, story, play (any literary format, as long as you're writing) and submit it to our website for a chance to win a prize and recognition or both!

Rules:

1. The submission must be in English.
2. The submission must not exceed 1,000 words.
3. The submission must be school appropriate and may not contain any foul language.
4. You must submit your piece of writing online. The submission form can be found at nghsnehs.weebly.com. Click the "Activities" tab. Then Click "Contests". Fill out all the information on the form and click submit.
Note: If the format of the words on the page matter, you may attach your document to an email and send it to us at ngnehs@gmail.com.
5. All pieces must be submitted by 11:59 PM on October 31st.

Prizes!

The winner of the writing contest will receive a $15 gift card of their choice (Target, Chick-fil-A, iTunes, Barnes N' Noble) and recognition. Three finalists will receive recognition and a certificate to commemorate their participation. These four submissions will also be published on our website. A winner and the Finalists will be announced by December 1st on the NEHS website.

If you hear of other middle school grades being able to participate in a similar writing contests, just know that there will be a first prize winner and three finalists for each grade.
